Dick:

A group of students (15) from Colgate, under the leadership of a Professor Naef, wants a briefing on CIA's mission and functions on 17 January between 3:00 and 4:30. Would you care to do the briefing, as I understand you have in past years, or should I ask  to take it this year?

Dear [redacted]

We are looking forward to our visit to the CIA headquarters for a briefing by Dick Lehman or [redacted] on Monday, January 17. Since we will be arriving in separate cars, I think it would be easier for us to assemble at the George Washington Parkway Entrance. Our group of 15 students plus myself will be at that gate no later than 2:45 p.m., if that is acceptable and I do not hear from you further. STAT

The enclosed roster of the Workshop on American Foreign Policy includes the visiting West German student Andreas Hofebauer. Simply eliminate him from the list. I have explained the situation to him, and he does not plan to come along.

This year our workshop focuses on bilateral and multi-lateral issues in our relations with the Soviet Union. Therefore we would be particularly interested in questions relating to economic, political and military assessments of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

Sincerely yours,

Charles R. Naef

Coordinator, International Relations Program
